DU JOUR

Honouring the ever-evolving, yet future nostalgic dancefloor glisten of house music, Australia's DJ Du Jour has solidified her presence. Hailing from the coastal town of Wollongong and now residing in Melbourne, the DJ and producer born as Kat Nughes has polished a party-ready catalogue of tech and vocal house vibes for good-time enthusiasts around the world after launching her career in 2010 winning the Sydney Mardi Gras DJ Competition. From shows at Mardi Gras alongside Cher to New York Pride Festival, Karma Kandara in Bali and in front of 15,000 revellers at Melbourne's Queer Arts Festival's Midsumma, DJ Du Jour has spent over a decade fine-tuning her locus in the global electronic music scene, while welcoming 2022 with a signing on iconic label Vicious Recordings.

ABOUT

Letting music be the driver, since 2015 Du Jour has been pinning the global tour map across the USA, Indonesia and Greece, while the motherland has given her grace of some of the country's most prolific events and clubs. Spinning alongside Sam Divine, Low Steppa and Ferreck Dawn on the Defected tour in Australia, the Du Jour energy radiated, giving devotees some of the best sounds on three simultaneous decks. Working the Balearic tip, Kat has featured on For The Love of House and Kitten Records Presents via Ibiza Club News Radio, sharing her passion for house music outside of the clubs.
